Hefren-Tillotson selected as Pittsburgh's Best Place to Work in 2011

Pittsburgh, PA— Hefren-Tillotson, Inc. today announced that on October 19, 2011 the firm was officially recognized as the Best Place to Work in Pittsburgh in the Large Company Category of those with over 151 employees. This ranking was determined by an online employee feedback survey conducted by Quantum Workplace, in conjunction with the Pittsburgh Business Times.

"We are honored to be recognized in this ranking as the Best Place to Work in Pittsburgh in our respective category," said Kim Tillotson Fleming, CEO. "We hope that this recognition, along with previous awards for Best Places to Work from Pittsburgh Magazine and Central Penn Business Journal in 2010, is a testament to the culture which is attributable to our loyal and dedicated employees."

The results were formally announced at a luncheon sponsored by the Pittsburgh Business Times on October 19, 2011 at the Omni William Penn Hotel in downtown Pittsburgh.

Hefren-Tillotson, Inc., (www.hefren.com) founded in Pittsburgh in 1948, is the oldest and largest full-service investment firm headquartered in Western Pennsylvania. Hefren-Tillotson's offices are located in Butler, Wexford, Upper St. Clair and Downtown Pittsburgh.
